

CARING

*You have wrapped me in the warmth of love
You have sweetly stolen my heart
You have rekindled my will for living
You have given my life a start*

*You are the essence of my caring
You mean all the world to me
And I shall love you, darling
For all eternity*

FIRST IS BEST

*Mary Lou is my favorite girl
She has pigtails hanging down
The prettiest face in all the world
And a body fat and round*

*Coming home from church today
I kissed my Mary Lou
The finest kiss I've ever had
(And it was my first one too)*

INSPIRATION

*Yesterday was my birthday
Daddy gave me a dog
Charles was sweet as he could be
And gave me a tiny frog*

*I think I'll place my puppy
Out in the backyard shed
And put that darling little frog
In Mama and Daddy's bed*

GRANDPA

*My Grandpa was such a fine old man
He passed away today
No more to hear his clear sweet laughter
Or the words of love he'd say*

*I think that I shall never forget
How sorrowfully I cried
Or how my heart was broken
The day my Grandpa died*
