

DENIM TO GINGHAM

*My wife just had a baby
My heart is filled with joy
Now I'll proudly look upon
My beautiful little boy*

*The nurse held up my baby
I knew when I saw that curl
My beautiful little baby boy
Was a beautiful baby girl*

THE DIET

*I weigh a ton it seems to me
What do you think of that?
Every bone I have in my body
Covered with ugly fat*

*Tomorrow I'll start my diet
On that you can rely
But now I'll eat this doughnut
And another piece of pie*

RAIN

*I love the sound of raindrops
Falling gently to the ground
That tiny pitter patter
Is such a lovely sound*

*Tiny droplets coming down
Upon my window pane
A soothing song sung by God
This sound of falling rain*

GRANDCHILDREN

*I baby-sat my grandchildren
Jill bit me till it hurt
Amy Jo got a big, fat frog
And dropped it down my shirt*

*Robert got a heavy brick
And hit me in the back
I really had a good time
(Except for the heart attack)*
